SPRING '08

and a stylish offer

Relaxed and easy, sweaters are perfect for summer. Consider adding a cotton or linen sweater to your wardrobe - great worn over shirts or alone.

Sure, a dark suit can see a man through anything but a light coloured one really makes a statement. Whether it's classic khaki or the more modern cool grey, a light coloured suit turns heads.

Don't go with another spring jacket - sport coats are the perfect cover in our climate.

Worn correctly blazers and sport coats make jeans, even shorts, look fantastic.

Brown is brave. Sure black is always the basic, but brown is right for summer shoes, casual sandals, and loafers.

Great jeans are a staple but be inventive.
Summer lends itself well to more interesting pants - try cotton or linen, patterned, plain, flat front or five pocket.

Want a reaction? Try replacing your striped shirt with a smart print or bright colour.

'Tis the season to be bold.

A man could do worse than wear nothing but beautiful white shirts – under suits, over jeans, over khakis, even with shorts. Clean and crisp, white shirts are a must.
